The History of Lyngblomsten

LYNGBLOMSTEN HOME

The history of Lyngblomsten rightfully begins in Minneapolis Sept. 15, 1902, when at the home of Mrs. Anna Qvale Fergstad a literary club of eight Norwegian women organized to meet once a month and Mrs. Fergstad was its president.

At the Oct. 19, 1903, meeting in the home of Mrs. Laura Bratager some one suggested to work for a cause not so self centered. The president then told the members she had something in mind, but hardly dared to propose so big an undertaking. At the conclusion, she found them all in sympathy with her proposal. So the dues of ten cents per month were collected to start the fund that in the future should provide a home for aged.

Lyngblomsten was the name given the society meaning the national flower of Norway, still better described to Americans as heather.

The officers and charter members were:

President—Mrs. Fergstad.

Vice President—Mrs. Chas. Bentson.

Secretary—Mrs. M. Faleen.

Treasurer—Mrs. J. Dahl.

• Mrs. C. Werdenhoff

Mrs. L. Bratager

Mrs. Nana Oftedahl

Mrs. C. C. Thorpe

Mrs. Carl Petterson

Mrs. Haaken Hasberg

Mrs. A. Andreason

Their plans no doubt were not so big at first, a modest home that would care for a few. But time has proven otherwise.

That same fall of 1903 Mrs. J. R. Swan organized a branch in Madison, Minn. Sixteen months later on Feb. 15, 1905, St. Paul women organized.

President—Mrs. G. Offerdahl.	Mrs. Nettie Oace
Vice President—Mrs. N. P. Wold.	Mrs. Gust Ekelund
Secretary—Miss Clara Hoff.	Mrs. B. Johansen
Treasurer—Mrs. J. Reed.	Mrs. Karl Hansen
Mrs. J. C. Dahlquist	Mrs. C. Strom
Mrs. S. C. Dahlquist	Mrs. Katrine Olson
Mrs. J. L. Dahlquist	Mrs. O. G. Wold
Mrs. Anton Fyhrie	Mrs. A. Stolpestad
Mrs. Jens H. Larsen	Mrs. H. Hillestad
Mrs. C. Alfsen	Miss Maren Shold
Mrs. Joseph Dahlby	Mrs. C. Hoff

By February, 1906, the society had grown so we had six branches in the twin cities and the society incorporated under the laws of Minnesota by Mrs. Anna Fergstad, Mrs. Manley Fosseen, Mrs. A. Shotwell, Mrs. C. Bentson, Mrs. J. T. Jenson, Hannah Tennysen.

The first Board of Directors were these women and Marie Peterson. That same year Nanna Oftedahl and Mrs. Fosseen worked hard organizing and interesting others to join.

As the St. Paul branches grew in interest and membership, they urged a change in the Articles of Incorporation, "that the home be centrally located between the twin cities," in place of in Hennepin county. This was adopted at the first annual meeting with but little opposition. The meeting was held Mar. 12, 1907, at the Bethania Church, Minneapolis.

After this meeting we felt permanently organized and the progress was noticeable. The officers were:

President—Mrs. Manley Fosseen.	Secretary—Mrs. Olga Nelson.
Vice President—Mrs. Nettie Oace.	Treasurer—Mrs. Anna Shotwell.

FOUNDERS OF LYNGBLOMSTEN SOCIETY

The fourth annual meeting reported we had 410 members and $7,547.21 cash.

More land adjoining was bought in May, 1910, for $1,500.75. Of this J. J. Hill donated $500. We now had approximately five acres.

The board appointed a committee of three: C. Fergstad, Odin Moe, and Wm. Jensen. Later they returned a recommendation that the society have $15,000 before it began to build.

The fifth annual meeting March 14, 1911, reported 17 branches, 458 members, and $9,348.36.

Additions to our constitution were made in preparation for the time we should build. The Board of Directors also were instructed to receive plans.

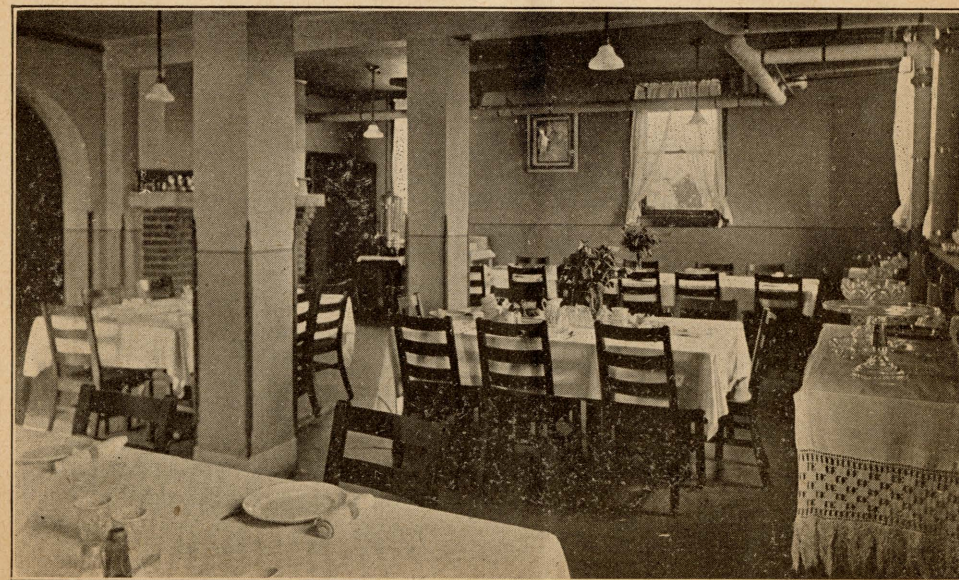

This began one of the busy years for the board of directors. The officers were:

President—Miss Sophia Stearns Benson.
Vice President—Mrs. Anna Fergstad.
Secretary—Mrs. Josephine Brack.
Treasurer—Mrs. Thorwald Nelson.

On March 30 the president and secretary presented a petition in St. Paul asking for the vacating of Atlantis street that would divide our property.

Sunday, July 30, 1911, we gathered on the knoll where the building now stands, for the breaking of the ground. The service was conducted by Reverend S. C. Simonson of St. Paul, and Reverend Paul Winther, Minneapolis. Every member present was moved by the simple, impressive ceremony. We sang, "I Jesu Navn, skal all vor gjärning ske." Other talks and good wishes to Lyngblomsten were made by Dr. Johnson, Mrs. Fergstad, Mrs. Bentson, of Minneapolis; Mr. H. Grove and Mr. M. Rosness, of St. Paul.

The Minneapolis branches gave a successful bazaar that netted $1,140.

The St. Paul branches with not nearly so many members netted $70 by a concert.

Mrs. Fosseen left the presidency with two new branches to her credit and a successful year in every way, a membership of 285—an increase of 141.

The second corporation meeting was held March, 1908. We now had $4,045.66.

The first committee to investigate locations for a site was Mrs. Carl Hansen and Mrs. Jens Johnson. All through this year and into the following, many places were investigated and real estate men interviewed.

The third corporation meeting March 10, 1909, was held at the United Lutheran Seminary. We now had 328 members and $5,720.28.

The advisory board recommended the one and three-fourths acres at Como and Pascal avenues, and after one and a half years investigating, $100 was paid down in July on this piece of land. In August, 1909, a mass meeting was called at Bethlehem Church, Minneapolis, where it was made known we were presented a gift of this land for an Old People's Home, by Sigvald Qvale, Mrs. Regine Qvale, and Mrs. Anna Qvale, mother of Mrs. Fergstad. The society gratefully accepted this gift.

The same year J. J. Hill promised $500 on condition we purchase additional land.

Not long after Lyngblomsten owned the site, letters from old people desiring information and admittance were received. The first was from an old couple unable to care for themselves longer, and willing to give $3,000 for care. The following month another letter stated the wife had passed away.

These letters at so early a date urged us on in our work for we saw the demand there was for an old people's home and longed to give this comfort to worthy in their declining years.

REJOICE

Rejoice today with one accord,
Sing out with exultation!
Rejoice and praise our mighty Lord,
Whose arm hath brought salvation,
The greatness of his name.
His work of love proclaim:
His goodness he hath shown,
And he is God alone;
Let all his Saints adore him.

When in distress to him we cried,
He heard our sad complaining,
O, trust in him what ere betied,
His grace is all sustaining.
Our hearts to him shall raise,
Triumphant Songs of praise;
And let all voices say,
"O Praise the Lord all way."
Let all his Saints adore him.

The sixth annual meeting came March 12, 1912. There was now on hand $14,634.86. After looking over what prospects we had to reach $15,000 as recommended, it was decided to build, and the Board of Directors instructed to let contracts to the lowest responsible bidders.

The plans accepted were made by Arthur Claussen, for a fireproof building 35x106, three stories and full basement.

Now that our home was actually started by April, not a few would ask, How will you manage to the running expenses. Faith—undoubtedly is the answer.

The cornerstone ceremony was held July 7th, 1912. Large plans were prepared for the occasion.

Miss Stearns was president this year also. Anna Fergstad was to have been one of the principals also, but on the eve of the realization of her greatest ambition she was stricken and laid to rest at Laymen's cemetery, Minneapolis, at the age of 61 years.

The ceremony of the cornerstone laying was well attended and quite a neat sum added to our treasury.

In November the home was ready for occupancy. Many gifts for furnishings and equipments were received from interested friends and members.

The home was dedicated Sunday, Dec. 1, 1912. The first matron in charge was Caroline Unhjem.

Mr. C. Fergstad donated $700, one month's bills, the first winter we occupied the home. The society placed a mortgage of $10,000 on the home. By a gift of $500 from Mr. Kenartson this was reduced to $9,500 later.

The first spring, attention was given the lawn, garden and orchard. Over 100 fruit trees, shrubs and berry bushes were planted. The barn was built and cows and chickens provided.

The eighth annual meeting in 1914 reported many practical improvements made. The fruit and vegetable cellars were dug out under the front porch; the building of the ice house; the final vacation of Atlantic street adding 32,400 square feet to our property for a consideration of $50, and buying three acres more land at $2,250 on which a loan of $2,000 was made, and $1,000 paid off on the first loan. So we now carried $10,500 from October, 1914.

Mrs. A. W. Anderson was prevented by illness to attend to her office after May. Mrs. A. C. Caincross and Mrs. Arosin were secretaries pro tem until September, when Mrs. N. P. Wold was elected secretary for the remainder of the year.

The Lyngblomsten Herald made its first appearance. This interesting paper was, however, discontinued later for not having any member that could devote the time it required to edit and make it a paying proposition.

In the following year, 1916, the Mortgage Fund was created by a gift of $1. The same year Miss Stearns headed a movement to boost the Endowment Fund. The Board of Directors decided to place all life membership dues in the Endowment Fund. There are at present 21 life members. The dues are $25.00.

The president resigned in October, 1916, having held this office five consecutive years and seven months, and previous to this time was treasurer for seven months. It was during her time in office the home was built. She was ardent and untiring in her efforts for Lyngblomsten.

Mrs. J. O. Lee was elected president in November, 1916. The Trust fund was also created this year and the mortgage fund now had $11.

In the spring of 1917 the garden was made larger. Many more berry bushes and fruit trees were planted.

Early in 1918 we knew our sewer assessment was $4,518.95, and besides we had the expense of house connections. Our expenses were gradually on the upward trend, and we were a little concerned. But thanks to the Minneapolis War Chest Fund, now the Town Tea Kettle, came to our assistance. Every member was urged to be active in the drives launched for this fund. We were hindered from raising funds by our usual ways on account of the influenza ban.

Mrs. Lee quietly solved another plan. In June, 1918, she announced $3,210 had been collected for the mortgage fund in St. Paul. This was "real news," and received with enthusiasm.

The soliciting has continued in St. Paul as we could do no soliciting in Minneapolis on account of participating in the Tea Kettle Fund.

October 1 the mortgage of $2,000 came due and was paid. We then had still a debt of $8,500 on the home.

Commencing 1920 our fiscal year will end January 1 each year.

In February this year the society received $1,000 by the will of Mr. Hegna of Minneapolis.

In connection with the property the society owns complete equipment to conduct a restaurant at the State Fair grounds. The last years were very successful.

The branches now and then entertain at the home with refreshments and programs. The directors see that the holidays are especially provided for. There is an annual donation day at the home in the fall, and the mid-summer festival each June.

The inmates have a home branch, making useful articles to sell. They also did knitting for the Red Cross during the war.

At present we are caring for 44 inmates. There have been admitted up to the present time 78 old people. Thirty-two deaths have occurred. At times there have been nine so feeble they have needed every attention.

By constant efforts this organization has accomplished this home successfully up to the present time, and we extend our sincerest thanks to you for every consideration in any way that has been instrumental in making this a real home for worthy old people.
